Barunah Plains

Once the biggest sheep station in Victoria, this historic homestead and property located 90 minutes from Melbourne is the ideal location for a destination event.

For the first time Peter Rowland is pleased to offer a limited number of event bookings at Barunah Plains. This historic property located in the heart of the western district dates to 1866 when it was the largest sheep station in Victoria.

The ideal location for a weekend event or destination wedding, this sprawling property has picturesque options for your wedding ceremony, wedding reception, party or grand dinner as well as outdoor event spaces and accommodation onsite.

Choose to say your vows or host drinks on the croquet lawn or by the bank of the charming Warrambine Creek which winds its way through the property.

The restored Woolshed is a rustic and picture-perfect space for your wedding reception, party or dinner. Alternatively, opt for a marquee with stunning sunsets in the distance and views back to the lit-up homestead. And the day after your event, the landscaped pool area and tennis court is the perfect spot for a recovery barbecue or buffet.

On-site accommodation for up to 69 guests includes the formal Homestead, the Cottage and Shearers Quarters. Additional guests can be accommodated on the glamping site which is also located on the property.

Peter Rowland's event team will be delighted to coordinate your entire weekend event at Barunah Plains. Whether you desire an elegant champagne reception with chic canapes, a refined three-course sit-down dinner, a welcoming buffet with all the trimmings, a picnic or barbecue we will work with you to create the perfect catering menu. We can also help you with inspiration for hire, floral, styling and entertainment
